We now approach an epoch when we may justly deny the party of whatever is extenuating in fanaticism. When the Blue Laws were rampant, when it was unsafe to express even a doubt of a witch's guilt, when Roger Williams was handshed for saying the Indians ought to be pabl for their lands, and a man ought not to be punished for witches writhed in the flames of torture at Salem, when the pot-gutted Puritan's stomach was nanseated by the fumes of roasting negroes, when the blood of Quakers erled out to God for vengeance. I say, if it is any satisfaction or extenuation, you may eali this blind, ranting fauaticism, for heaven knows they need an apologist, priest and prayers. But now we approach a period when we may justly deny even this poor compilment. For the leaders to whom they gave their unbounded admiration were ribald luftdels, who cursed the Coustitution, swearing it "was a league with death and a covenant with hell," attacked the church, cursed the Bible and reviled God Almighty Himself.

A Fancy of Life.

BY THE ACTROR OF A DAY-DREAM, AC. There is a young lady in town, Whose filting brings her renown But 'luu" le ner ples,

And her rivals look on with a frown She don't care a ceul what she says, A friend she will wound with her ways For the's thoughtless you know,

In drawing her bean And to make a new "mash" is her cruze She's a good-hearted girl when at home. And not among strangers to room,

But to create a sensation And this, of her faults, is alone. New pickles at the Red Front. Buy your ice at the Red Front.

Obituary of a Doar Friend. at the residence of her family, in South Carrollton, Ky., on July 30th, 1885, was recognized by the entire community as one of its brightest stars, grandest intellects, and most amiable young indies. Miss Mary was 18 years of age, being called from our midst in the morning of life, just as the days of her most useful career had fairly dawned. I believe she had never connected herseif with any church, still we know from the manner in which she bore her great sufferings during her uffliction. which were very exeruciating a greater part of the time, and from her actions during her last hours, that her soul was tilled with the love of the One who gave her existence. It is true, we can not shave interpret the providence of thod, but we know the Saviour stands near us, and often does He say to us, as He said to l'eter, "What I do thou knowest not now. And in this affiletion we are surrounded by a dark cloud. through which our human vision can not penetrate, whileh our human hands cannot remove and our finitude cannot comprehend. We claim and approknow hereafter," but for the present we know "He doeth all tilings well," and guaranteed to be worth the money asked for them. We are the sole agents behind a frowning Providence there bea.ns a smiling face." Heuce, we write as an epitaph, "Not lost, but ize that though the family chain ha been severed one more ilnk has been transferred to heaven. May we traverse the nath of life with the same love. Then shall we meet where partings and death are unknown, and where God shall wipe away all tears from on eyes, and we with a devoted mother, an affectionate sister and a loving brother shall cease to mourn her less. But alas! too pure was she for life, lu this valu worbl of toll and strife : Death set lik seal and angels bore Her spirit to a brighter shore.

Her ways so dear that some would say: "How aweet she passes thue away. Her smiles no more on earth are given. liut sweeter still she smiles in heaven. We weep, but why I cannot tell,

We should not wish thee here again, To suffer sorrow and be in pain. Thon art lu peace on thy Savionr's breas And we must leave thee now to rest, And uever see thy sweet face again. Until we reach that golden plain.

For thou art gone where angels dwell;

Corrodes the heart or casts a blight-In that bright world of pure delight.

O. Mary, dear, we'll meet you there,

In that blest world where not a care

ARE BE JAY. A Voice From Providence, R. I.

For twenty years I have been atflict ed with a dreadful blood polson, and during all those years I have had the best medical advice in the country the physicians prescribing the only remelde of Potasslum, all to no purpose. I was six months in Bellevue Hospitai. and became so bad that I despaired o getting well. I then, through advice, went to Europe and tried some of the best physicians there with the same results, and I returned again to this country. Finally I went to New Orleans, being told that the French doctors understood the treatment of my case bet-that I am perfectly cured, having takeu disease have returned, and I feel as well refer to Mr. R. Schmidt, Agent C. R. R. best and only remedy to positively core blood polson, and I honestly recommend it to all who are afflicted as 1

The proprietors of B. B. B. would say most emphalically that their remedy stands upon its own merit. Should we attempt to imitate; it would not be those who do not understand the modus operandi of that which they offer. Our own long experience in the profession precludes such an idea. The field for blood remedies is large and broad, affording ample room for all present aspirants. We do not desite to close the door against others neither shall it be closed against us. B. B. Hardened Liver.

Five years ago I troke down with kildey and liver complaint and rhemmitsm.

Since then I have been made to be about at all. My liver because hard like wood; my limbs were puffed up and filled with water. All the best physicians agreed that nothing could circ me. I resolved to try Hop Bitbus; I have used seven bottles; the bardness has all gone from my libobs, and It has verked a miracle in my case; otherwise I would have been now bu my grave.
